- India-US trade deal: After speaking with PM Narendra Modi, US President Donald Trump dials down the tariff temperature on India to 18%, while claiming New Delhi would nullify levy on American goods and stop buying Moscow oil
- India now enjoys a significant trade advantage with the United States. Washington has reduced tariffs on Indian products to 18 percent. This move places India ahead of regional export rivals like Indonesia, Bangladesh, and Vietnam. The deal also sees India's tariffs on US goods reduced. This development is a major boost for Indian exports and strengthens bilateral trade ties.
