June 11, 2026

*All price's mentioned in report are based on previous day closing bases.

NIFTY – 23,214.95 (Daily Chart)

• In Wednesday's trading session, the Nifty opened on a positive note and carried its bullish momentum during the first half of the session. However, in the second half, the index failed to sustain at higher levels and moved back toward the south, resulting in a flattish close.

• On a daily scale, the index has formed a Doji candlestick pattern, indicating indecisiveness among market participants. The index continues to maintain its bearish structure, as it is forming a pattern of lower highs. It also continues to trade below the 20 DEMA level, indicating the continuation of bearish momentum. Additionally, the RSI is gradually moving southward, signaling weakness in the index.

• For Thursday's trading session, 23,170 will act as the initial support level, while on the higher end, 23,410 will act as the initial resistance level.

BANK NIFTY – 55,100.30 (Daily Chart)

• In Wednesday's trading session, the banking index opened on a positive note and gradually moved northward during the first half of the session. However, in the second half, the index failed to sustain at higher levels and gradually drifted southward, resulting in a flattish close.

• On a daily scale, the index has formed a Doji candlestick pattern, indicating indecisiveness among market participants. The index failed to sustain above the crucial horizontal resistance level of 55,560. However, the positive takeaway for the bulls is that the index managed to hold the support of the 50 DEMA level, suggesting that buying interest remains intact at lower levels.

• For Thursday's trading session, 54,995 will act as the initial support level, while on the higher end, 55,560 will act as the initial resistance level.

- The Reserve Bank of India has released a draft framework for bank control and assurance functions. This aims to simplify rules and boost governance. The new guidelines will be effective from January 1, 2027. Banks must ensure their risk management, compliance, and internal audit functions are robust.
- The Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS) 5.0 has seen over 1 lakh guarantees issued, totaling Rs 48,484 crore in just one month. This initiative, aimed at addressing liquidity challenges from the West Asia crisis, primarily benefits the MSME sector, with public sector banks playing a significant role in its rapid adoption.
- India has extended anti-dumping duties on aluminium foil imports. The measure will remain in effect until December 15, 2026. This decision impacts imports from China, Malaysia, Thailand, and Indonesia. The Ministry of Finance issued a notification amending previous customs regulations. This action follows requests from domestic companies concerned about unfair trade practices.
